Conference Registration Fee Waiver (Scholarship) for Postgraduate Students

1.1. The scholarship

1.1.1. With funding from IFT, the conference registration fees for 10 eligible postgraduate students will be fully waived, amounting to a scholarship type of support worth up to US$250.

1.1.2. The scholarship is awarded to only one author of a single paper and only one award is given to each successful applicant.

1.2. Eligibility

1.2.1. The scholarship is open to current and full-time postgraduate students only. A testimonial from the applicant's respective institution should be submitted as a proof of his/her current status.

1.2.2. Staff members of IFT and institutions co-organizing the conference with IFT are not eligible to receive this scholarship.

1.3. Awarding of scholarship

1.3.1. Awards are strictly based on a competitive selection process judged primarily on the quality of submitted full papers (not abstracts or extended abstracts) as determined by the paper review panel. Postgraduate students vying for this scholarship should submit their full papers for review on or before ~~15 July 2009~~ 07 August 2009 .

1.3.2. Criteria to be employed for scoring papers vying for scholarship will be the same as those used for all other papers.

1.3.3. Selection will follow a double blind review process with papers in the top 10 of the list becoming eligible for the scholarship.

1.4. Application

1.4.1. Interested parties should submit their full paper and an official declaration of their status (see 1.2.1) to Ms. Connie Loi (aa hm2009@ift.edu.mo) on or before ~~15 July 2009~~ 07 August 2009 .

1.4.2. Full papers should adhere to conference style format and guidelines as indicated in the conference website.

1.4.3. Awards will be announced on 15 August 2009.

1.4.4. Once awarded, recipients must -

1.4.4.1. acknowledge receiving partial funding from IFT in the final published version of the paper and

1.4.4.2. complete registration procedures by 31 August 2009.

1.5. Amendments

1.5.1. IFT and the conference organizers reserve the right to amend the terms regulating this scholarship.
