Wine & Gourmet ASIA 2007 is the only international trade fair in the Asia Pacific region supported by a comprehensive program of wine and dine sessions which is an attraction by itself. As one of the first defining events to be held at the Cotai Strip, the trade fair is dedicated to showcasing the full spectrum of products from the wine and gourmet food, hotel and foodservice equipment as well as supplies and services industries.

Supporting events include:

- Asian Bartenders Cocktail Challenge
- Culinary master classes & cooking demonstrations
- Wine auctions and tasting classes
- F&B industry forums
- Master chef luncheons & dinners

Special feature zones:

- Special feature zone showcasing fine Macanese cuisine, great Portuguese wines, and Macau's unique cultural themes.
- Special feature showcasing luxury products such as cigars, spa related products, etc

Organized by Koelnmesse, the event is expected to showcase 180 exhibitors and draw 10,000 trade visitors from the region and abroad. Koelnmesse is also the organizer of the world's biggest international food trade fair – ANUGA in Cologne, Germany.
